

Introduction:

The Ex-Servicemen community including the Ex-servicemen, their widows and dependents are often required to visit their respective Zila Sainik Board/ Rajya Sainik Board for various purposes such as resettlement issues, medical treatment, legal, pension, availing canteen facilities, etc and other important town/cities for medical treatment etc. It is during these times; they need a decent and affordable accommodation to stay for a short duration at these locations. For this purpose, a large number of Sainik Rest houses are constructed at various places throughout the country. The land is provided free of cost by the State Government/UT and its maintenance is the responsibility of the respective State Govt/UT. These Rest Houses are being maintained by the concerned Rajya/ Zila Sainik Boards. Government of India shares 50% of the cost of construction of Sainik Rest Houses as per the laid down Standard Operating Procedure.

There are 32 Sainik Rest Houses (SRHs) spread all over the West Bengal State. For detailed list of Sainik Rest Houses at various locations all over the State as under: -
